

CHRIS BECERRA

Educational Consultant/Professor

Dr. Chris Becerra has worked in education for over 20 years both as a teacher and as an administrator. From 2010-2018, he worked for the Brea Olinda Unified School District where his greatest accomplishment was adding early childhood education programs on every elementary school campus. Dr. Becerra currently has four children enrolled in the school district, both in general education and special education. In addition to owning his own educational consulting firm, he serves as a professor at California State University at Fullerton, Fullerton College, and Santa Ana College, all of which are in the child development and educational studies departments. As a former foster parent, Dr. Becerra brings a trauma informed care approach in all of his work. He also has served as a board member for the Brea Education Foundation for two years, as well as a member of the P.T.O. at the school his children attend.
