

COLIN EDWARDS

Parent/Orange County Businessowner

Born and raised in our community, I graduated from Los Alamitos High School and community college before going on to earn my bachelor's and master's degrees. My wife and I decided to raise our family here in the Los Alamitos-Cypress community.

I'm not a politician, and I've never run for elected office. I'm a concerned citizen and businessman, but most importantly, I'm the father of a three-year-old child and a newborn infant. When they reach school age, my children will become Los Alamitos Unified School District students, so I want to ensure the Los Alamitos Unified School District provides the best possible education for all of our community's children.

In the Los Alamitos Unified School District, 85% of students are proficient in English, but only 60% are proficient in math. We must do better.

If elected as your Los Alamitos Unified School District Board Member, I'll work to:

- Ensure our schools focus on core academic subjects and skills, not popular fads
- Make every Los Alamitos Unified School District graduate ready for college or the workforce
- Bring parents and teachers together to enhance the curriculum

My dedication and diligence have earned me endorsements from:
Orange County Board of Education Trustees Mari Barke and Tim Shaw
Los Alamitos Mayor Shelley Hasselbrink
Cypress Councilman Jon Peat
Former Los Alamitos Mayors Gerri Graham-Mejia and Dean Grose
Former Assemblymember Travis Allen

I respectfully ask for your vote.
